

2023 Annual Report

In 2023, the Cottage Grove Community Foundation completed its fourth year committed to enhancing the places and enriching the people in Cottage Grove through charitable giving. We would like to thank our donors, sponsors, and friends that continuously donate time, services and monetary gifts. The tireless efforts of our volunteers and from our Board of Directors and committee members ensured that all donations stay local in order to fulfill our mission. Thank you all for making our vision become a reality.
